

N.C. Lt. Gov. candidate to speak at Polk event April 3

The Tryon Daily Bulletin (North Carolina)

March 30, 2012 Friday

Copyright 2012 The Tryon Daily Bulletin
Distributed by Newsbank, Inc. All Rights Reserved

Section: COMMUNITY

Length: 206 words

Body

Dan Forest, candidate for N.C. Lt. Governor, will attend a tailgate party hosted by the Foothills Conservative PAC on Tuesday, April 3, at 5 p.m. at the Harmon Field cabin in Tryon.

The community is invited to come out for a hot dog supper and to meet Forest, described as a strong fiscal and social conservative. At 6:30 p.m., Forest will present "ReVision: N.C.," his plan for the state of North Carolina.

Forest has more than 23 years of experience as a business leader, architect and entrepreneur. He is a former senior partner with one of North Carolina's largest architectural firm, Little Diversified Architectural Consulting, having served as president of the firm's Durham office.

Forest holds two undergraduate degrees from UNC Charlotte and is a graduate of UNC Charlotte's college of architecture. He is the founder of the Triangle Leadership Forum, where he serves as president of the board. Forest serves on the board of The Faith Driven Consumer and is the former chairman of the board of Wake Forest Pregnancy Support Services.

He lives in Raleigh with his wife, Alice, and four children, ages 6 to 18.

For more information, contact Deon Dunn of the Foothills Conservative PAC at 828-817-2165.

– article submitted by Deon Dunn

Load-Date: November 1, 2012